➤ Work period: May 04 – 15, 2026

➤ Argument:

Quality in education is not an abstract aspiration, but the foundation on which any authentic human training project is built. In a constantly changing world, marked by the acceleration of technological transformations, the reconfiguration of labor markets and the increasingly acute pressure of 21st century skills, schools are called to respond with rigorous tools, a systemic vision and a commitment to excellence.

➤ Thematic directions:

• Scientific communications on the topics: quality and educational management, quality assurance in pre-university and university education, quality standards and institutional evaluation, pedagogical innovation and teaching excellence, continuous training of teachers as a factor of quality, digitalization of education and the impact on the quality of teaching, school-family-community partnership, valorization of students with high potential.

• Good practices — open educational resources, educational projects and programs, educational partnerships, Erasmus+ projects, eTwinning.

➤ Target group: teaching staff/teaching staff with management functions/teaching staff with guidance and control functions/school counselors/school psychologists.

➤ Requirements for writing scientific articles:

- Title — typed in capital letters, centered, at the top of the page;
- Information about the author (position, name, surname, educational institution) — typed at one interval after the title, right-aligned;
- Abstract/summary — up to 100 words, written in Romanian and English/French;
- Keywords — up to 7 terms/expressions;
- Text — 2-5 pages, typed in A4 format, Times New Roman font, font size 12, line spacing 1.5;
- Materials will be accompanied by a bibliography written according to APA standards.

Responsibility for the content of the works lies with the authors.

Each participant will attach only one work to the form.

➤ Deadline:

- The participation form will be completed by April 22, 2026.
- Participation certificates will be sent to the participants' email addresses in June 2026.
- The scientific papers will be published in a volume entitled: "Educational Management and Quality: The Road from Performance to Excellence in Contemporary Education", which will be sent to the participants' email addresses in June 2026.

➤ DETAILS:

- Teachers will participate indirectly, by submitting papers.
- Participation fee: 50 lei, can be paid both at the headquarters of the Neamț Teaching Staff House and in the institution's account opened at the Piatra-Neamț Treasury, RO94TREZ49120E365000XXXX (CUI 2613257).
